

September 2019

Dear Parents,

It's hard to believe but it is that time of the year again—the beginning of a new school year. Welcome back!

Your child receives the best education when you and I work as a team. It is a parent's enthusiasm, support and involvement that inspires children to do their best; and a teacher's ability to teach what they need to learn. Together we can achieve wonderful things.

There is a lot of excitement ahead of us, including new teachers to meet, new books to read, new friends to meet and new skills to master. I look forward to sharing in those exciting times with you. As a parent, myself I know how fast time goes by. One year your child is in first grade and in a blink of an eye they are in their senior year of high school!

I encourage you to fully embrace the moment so that you and your child enjoy this upcoming school year. I hope it is filled with lots of learning and many good memories.

Thank you for your commitment to your child's education and I look forward to seeing you in the very near future.

Sincerely,
Sheri Aiello
